

Funny People

Director: Judd Apatow

Starring: Adam Sandler, Seth Rogen, Leslie Mann, Eric Bana

George (Sandler) is a superstar comic who learns that he has a terminal disease. Ira (Rogen) is an up-and-coming stand-up comedian who becomes George's assistant, joke writer and the friend in whom he feels he can confide.

Funny People allows Apatow, as writer and director, to display some previously unexplored darker instincts, with a story that mixes his typically raunchy guy talk with deeper discussions about mortality

A Universal Pictures release.
