

Monday, September 21

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1756: Scottish engineer John Loudon McAdam, inventor of Tar Macadam road surfacing, commonly known as Tarmac, was born

1746: French forces captured the Indian city of Madras from the British

1909: Kwame Nkrumah, Ghana's first prime minister and later its first president, was born

1992: The Vatican and Mexico established full diplomatic relations, ending a rift of 130 years

2008: The New York Yankees beat The Baltimore Orioles, 7-3, at the last game to be played at the team's famous Yankee Stadium