

Thursday, October 1

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2008: Motoring enthusiasts marked the 100th anniversary of the first production model of the Ford Model T car

1795: Belgium became part of the French Republic

1946: The International War Crimes Tribunal in Nuremburg sentenced 12 Nazi leaders to death

1974: The Watergate cover-up trial opened in Washington D.C.

2008: Russia's supreme court declared the late Tsar Nicholas II and his family victims of political repression, marking the official rehabilitation of the Romanovs