ON THIS DAY

▲ 2008: Cambodian and Thai forces opened fire in a disputed border area near an ancient Hindu temple. Three Cambodians and a Thai were killed

1791: The Society of United Irishmen was founded in Belfast to demand rights for Catholics

1854: The world's first baby show was held in Springfield, Ohio

1944: British and Greek troops liberated Athens, which had been in German hands since April 1941

2008: Canada's ruling Conservative Party, led by Prime Minister Stephen Harper, was re-elected to head another minority government

Picture: Getty Images          © GRAPHIC NEWS