

Sweden helicopter heist

Robbers used a helicopter to carry out a spectacular pre-dawn theft at a cash depot south of Stockholm. The helicopter used in the raid on a G4S security company's facilities in Västberga was stolen overnight from a local airport

■ Jan 2008: Masked gunmen break into mail processing centre in Goteborg in failed attempt to intercept cash shipment. Trial of 16 suspects currently in progress

■ Mar 2006: Five robbers, some armed with assault rifles, hold up luggage handlers at Goteborg's Landvetter airport as they unload crates of foreign currency worth $1.1 million from SAS aircraft

■ Jul 2002: Three armed men steal estimated $5.6m in foreign currency at Stockholm's Arlanda Airport