

Oxfam launches East Africa appeal

Oxfam has launched a $15 million emergency appeal for victims of the worst drought to hit East Africa in a decade. According to the aid agency, more than 23 million people are being pushed towards severe hunger and destitution across the region

Sources: Oxfam, USAID

Region affected by severe five-year drought deepened by climate change, and made worse by high food prices and violent conflict

Picture: Getty Images