

New quake hits Sumatra

A day after a 7.6 magnitude under-sea earthquake struck Indonesia's city of Padang, a second powerful quake, with a magnitude of 6.8, struck northwest of Bengkulu

