

Tuesday, November 10

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1871: *Dr Livingstone, I presume? enquired Henry Stanley on finding missing explorer David Livingstone at Ujiji, in present day Tanzania

1483: German religious reformer Martin Luther was born

1938: Mustapha Kemal Ataturk, founder of modern Turkey, died

1989: Todor Zhikov stepped down as Bulgaria's Communist Party chief and head of state after 35 years in power

2008: The U.S. government further bailed out struggling insurance giant AIG to the tune of $150 billion, the largest support package extended to a private company in U.S history