

Saturday, November 14

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2007: Eurostar trains switched to the fully-renovated St Pancras International station in London, the new high-speed line taking just two hours and 15 minutes to reach Paris

1533: Spanish forces under Pizarro captured the Inca capital of Cusco

1918: Tomas Masaryk was elected as the first president of Czechoslovakia

1991: Prince Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia made a triumphant return home after 13 years in exile

2008: India's Chandrayaan-1 unmanned lunar exploration mission successfully landed its Moon Impact Probe on the south pole of the Moon