

Monday, November 23

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2005: Ellen Johnson-Sirleaf of Liberia became Africa's first elected female head of state

1859: Notorious outlaw Willam H. Bonney, alias Billy the Kid, was born

1991: The Croatian city of Vukovar surrendered to Serbian forces after a three-month siege

1996: A hijacked Ethiopian airliner ran out of fuel and crashed off the Comoros Islands, killing 127 people

1999: U.S. First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton ended months of speculation when she announced she would run for the U.S. Senate for the state of New York