

Thursday, November 26

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2008: A series of terror attacks in Mumbai, India's financial capital, killed 173 people before security forces retook control 48 hours later

1939: Grammy award-winning rock diva Tina Turner was born in Nutbush, Tennessee. She turns 70 today

1959: National Service was abolished in Australia

1967: The People's Republic of South Yemen was proclaimed in Aden by the National Liberation Front

1990: The world's longest-serving elected prime minister, Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore, resigned after 31 years in power