

Wednesday, December 16

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2008: The ruins of an entire city were discovered in northern Peru. The site was thought to date to the Wari culture which ruled the Andes from the 7th to the 12th centuries

1850: The Charlotte Jane was the first immigrant ship to arrive in New Zealand

1969: Britain's parliament voted to abolish the death penalty

1980: OPEC countries increased oil prices by 10 percent

2008: The deadliest traffic accident in Israel's history killed 25 Russian travel agents and left dozens seriously hurt when their tour bus plunged into a ravine near Eilat