

Sunday, February 28

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1935: Nylon, a generic designation for a family of synthetic polymers, was first produced by the American company DuPont

1943: Nine Norwegian commandos sabotaged German heavy water installations near Ryukan in Norway

1950: The Paris Assembly passed a law curbing the sale of Coca-Cola

1971: Male voters in Liechtenstein defeated a referendum on giving women the vote

2008: Ousted former prime minister Thaksin Shinawatra returned to Thailand. He and his wife faced charges of corruption