

Monday, March 22

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1888: The English Football League was founded in London

1895: In Paris, brothers Auguste and Louis Lumiere gave the first demonstration of motion pictures using celluloid film

1907: Asians living in South Africa began a campaign of civil disobedience led by Gandhi in protest against racist laws

1960: Two U.S. inventors made technological history when they received the first patent on the laser

2009: Ninety-three Tibetan monks were arrested after attacking a police station in Qinghai, China