

“World’s cheapest” mobile phone

The Vodafone 150 is an ultra-low cost mobile phone aimed at bringing connectivity to millions of people in the developing world. The handset, priced at under $15, will initially be available in India, Turkey and eight African countries

▶ Screen: 1 inch (96 x 64 pixel) monochrome display

▶ Network: Dual-band GSM

▶ Battery life: 5 hours talktime, 16 days on standby

▶ Messaging: Voice and SMS

▶ Other features: Polyphonic ringtones, alarm clock, calculator, currency converter, up to 100 phonebook entries, torch, mini USB connector

▶ Vodafone 250: Enhanced model features 1.45 inch (180 x 180 pixel) colour display, FM radio and stereo headset support, plus wallpapers. Cost under $20

