

Iraq-Turkey rail link opens

The first train service in decades has re-opened between northern Iraq and Turkey in a move both countries hope will boost fast-growing trade and social ties

Trade between Turkey and Iraq's Kurdish regional government accounts for $10bn a year

Mainly Kurdish control

© GRAPHIC NEWS