

Deadly clashes in Nigeria

Around 500 people have been killed in religious clashes near the Nigerian city of Jos, which lies between the mainly Muslim north and the largely Christian south

Sunday: Rioters armed with machetes attack three mostly Christian villages near Jos

Attack thought to be in reprisal for January clashes between Christians and Muslims, which killed over 300, most of them Muslims

© GRAPHIC NEWS