

Euro zone rescue plan

The $\square 750$ billion “shock-and-awe” rescue plan is a bid to safeguard the euro – used by 16 of the EU’s 27 member states – and stop Greece’s sovereign debt crisis from spreading to other vulnerable countries in the euro zone

International Monetary Fund

€250bn

EU budget contribution €60bn

Euro-area governments €440bn