

Sunday, June 20

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2009: The shooting by Iranian security forces of Neda Agha-Soltan, 27, drew international attention when pictures of her death were posted on the internet, fast becoming a rallying point for Iran's reformist opposition

1597: Dutch explorer Willem Barents died in the Arctic when his ship became trapped in ice

1909: Hollywood swashbuckler Errol Flynn was born in Tasmania

1973: Juan Peron returned to Argentina as president after 20 years in exile

2009: The new Acropolis Museum opened in Athens, Greece, housing works from the city's golden age