

Monday, June 28

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2009: Honduran President Manuel Zelaya was ousted in a military coup ahead of a disputed constitutional referendum and flown into exile in Costa Rica

1629: The Peace of Alais ended the Huguenot revolt in France

1902: The United States bought the concession to build a Panama canal from a French company for $40m

1950: North Korean troops captured the South Korean capital, Seoul

1995: Nelson Mandela set up a Truth Commission to investigate human rights abuses committed during South Africa's apartheid era