

Jamaica state of siege

A state of emergency has been declared in Jamaica's capital, Kingston, and neighbouring St Andrew's Parish after gun and firebomb attacks by supporters of Christopher "Dudus" Coke, a suspected drug lord facing extradition to the United States

