

Train kills 12 in Spain

A high-speed train passing through a railway station near Barcelona slammed into a group of young people crossing the tracks, killing 12 and injuring 14 others

Wednesday, 21:30GMT: Group headed to Castelldefels beach for summer festival believed to be crossing tracks rather than using pedestrian underpass