

UK police close in on armed killer

Police are continuing to conduct a major manhunt in northern England for fugitive gunman Raoul Moat, who is alleged to have shot dead one man and seriously injured two others, including a policeman

Police have offered £10,000 reward for information leading to 37-year-old Moat's capture

- 1 July 1: Moat released from Durham prison after serving sentence for assault
- 2 July 3: Moat's ex-girlfriend is shot and seriously wounded in Birtley. Her new boyfriend is shot and killed
- 3 July 4: Policeman shot and seriously hurt in Denton, Newcastle-upon-Tyne
- 4 July 5: Armed robbery in Seaton Delaval by suspect resembling Moat
- 5 July 6: Police search centres on Rothbury. Moat's car is found and two men taken hostage by him are arrested for conspiracy to murder
- July 7: Moat's abandoned camp found in secluded area near Rothbury

