

European car sales fall

New car sales in the EU fell for the third month in a row in June owing to the end of government “cash-for-clunkers” schemes. Registrations fell by 6.9% on a 12-month comparison to 1,341,092

