

China's flood misery

Unusually heavy rain is continuing to cause havoc across a large swathe of southern China. More than 500 people have died in flood-related incidents since May, with meteorologists forecasting more rain to hit the region

 Flood-hit provinces

July 13: At least 17 people killed and dozens more missing after landslides triggered by heavy rain hit rural communities in Yunnan and Sichuan provinces

© GRAPHIC NEWS