

Monday, August 2

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2009: Bolivia began implementing provisions in its new constitution that gave indigenous people the chance to govern themselves, the first South American nation to do so

1589: Henry III of France was assassinated at St Cloud

1932: Actor Peter O'Toole was born in Connemara, Ireland

1989: Trade restrictions between Britain and Argentina were lifted for the first time since the 1982 Falklands War

2009: Two newly discovered works written by Mozart as a child were performed in Salzburg, Austria, the city of his birth