U.S. drone and militant attacks in Pakistan

Almost 2,500 people have been killed in Pakistan as a result of Islamic militant attacks and U.S. drone strikes since President Obama took office in January 2009. Of these, over 740 people have been killed in around 85 U.S. attacks in the troubled northwest tribal areas

1,700 Civilians killed by militant attacks

746 Fatalities from U.S. drone attacks

Federally Administered Tribal Areas / North West Frontier Province

AFGHANISTAN

PAKISTAN

INDIA

ARABIAN SEA

50 Dera Ghazi Khan

69 Karachi

50 miles
80km

K A S H M I R

BAJAUR 14

DIR 75

KHYBER ORAKZAI 120

362

KURRAM 54 8

A F G H A N I S T A N

91

Peshawar

Line of Control

98 Rawalpindi

Islamabad

NORTH WAZIRISTAN 386

BANNU 96

5

Kohat

Lakki Marwat

SOUTH WAZIRISTAN 279

P U N J A B

253 Lahore

77 Dera Ismail Khan

Other 410

B A L O C H I S T A N

P A K I S T A N

Armament: Air-to-ground missiles and laser-guided bombs

Of over 740 fatalities in U.S. drone attacks, only about a dozen militants have been positively identified

MQ-9 Reaper

Sources: BBC Urdu service – data from Jan 2009 to Jun 2010; SATP

© GRAPHIC NEWS