

Bonnie halts spill efforts

Tropical Storm Bonnie is threatening efforts to plug BP's Gulf of Mexico oil leak as many of the vessels and rigs involved in the operation are moving out of the system's path

Macondo well: To remain capped while ships evacuated. Drilling on relief well suspended for 10-14 days

