

Afghanistan “war logs”

More than 90,000 leaked U.S. records, revealing hidden details of the Afghanistan war, have been published on the website Wikileaks

■ Pakistan: Leaked papers reportedly reveal Islamabad – ostensibly a U.S. ally – has allowed members of its ISI spy service to secretly help Taliban organize attacks against U.S. troops

■ Taliban: Successfully used portable heat-seeking missiles to shoot down allied helicopters – fact covered up

■ Kill or capture: Secret commando units like Task Force 373 – group of U.S. special forces – engaged in “kill or capture” missions against top insurgent commanders. Missions stepped up by Obama administration

■ Civilian casualties: Many have gone unreported – deaths due to Taliban roadside bombs or Nato missions that have gone wrong
