

Online whistle-blower

WikiLeaks, the cyber-leaker that posted 92,200 classified military field reports about the Afghan war, says its goal is to reveal “unethical behaviour” by governments

■ WikiLeaks: Co-founded in 2006 by 35-year-old Australian Julian Assange

■ 2006: Posts Standard Operating Procedures for prisoners in Camp Delta at Guantanamo Bay. Allegedly confirms use of psychological torture

■ 2007: Exposes $3 billion corruption scam to swing vote in Kenya elections

■ 2010: Makes public video of U.S. helicopter attack in Iraqi capital that kills 12 civilians, including two journalists from Reuters. WikiLeaks labels attack as collateral murder

■ Organization: Web site run by Sunshine Press with core group of some six full-time volunteers. Hosted on servers in Sweden and Belgium, with “mirrors” around world