

Khmer Rouge jailer found guilty of genocide

A UN-backed war crimes tribunal has convicted and sentenced former Khmer Rouge prison chief Duch for crimes against humanity, in the first verdict involving a senior member of the “killing fields” regime blamed for the deaths of 1.7 million Cambodians

Kaing Guek Eav, known as Duch, 67

Admitted to overseeing deaths of 16,000 people from 1975-79. Sentenced to 35 years in prison

OTHER FORMER REGIME LEADERS – trials due to start in 2010

Nuon Chea, 84

Also known as “Brother Number Two”, was deputy to Khmer Rouge founder Pol Pot

Ieng Sary, 85

“Brother Number Three” – Khmer Rouge’s foreign minister, arrested in 2007

Ieng Thirith, 78

Ieng Sary’s wife was most senior woman in regime as Minister of Social Affairs

Khieu Samphan, 79

Represented public face of regime as Khmer Rouge’s official head of state

ESCAPED JUSTICE: Pol Pot died in his bed aged 72 in 1998

Ta Mok Military chief died aged 80 in hospital in 2006

Son Sen Security chief killed in 1997 on orders of Pol Pot