

Tuesday, September 21

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2009: The Renault F1 team was given a suspended two year ban for race fixing at the 2008 Singapore GP, when Nelson Piquet Jr. deliberately crashed, causing the safety car to be deployed and allowing teammate Fernando Alonso to win the race

1792: France voted to abolish the monarchy

1903: The first movie western, the 21-minute Kit Carson, premiered

1938: Czechoslovakia agreed to cede the Sudetenland to Germany

2008: The U.S. beat Europe to win the Ryder Cup golf tournament for the first time since 1999