

Worldwide top summer movies

Pixar's Toy Story 3 leads this year's top summer movies with worldwide ticket sales of over $1 billion. The movie has made Walt Disney Pictures the first company to field twin billion-dollar blockbusters in the same year. Disney's Alice In Wonderland also crossed the mark in the spring

Global ticket sales (May to September)

Toy Story 3	Director: Lee Unkrich	$1.03bn
Shrek Forever After	Mike Mitchell	$719.67m
Inception	Christopher Nolan	$701.11m
Eclipse	David Slade	$680.23m
Iron Man 2	Jon Favreau	$616.75m
The Karate Kid	Harald Zwart	$333.66m
Despicable Me	Pierre Coffin	$317.63m
The Last Airbender	M. Night Shyamalan	$270.09m
Salt	Phillip Noyce	$263.45m
Grown Ups	Dennis Dugan	$238.77m

All-time worldwide blockbusters

Avatar (2009)	James Cameron	$2.77bn
Titanic (1997)	James Cameron	$1.84bn
The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King (2003)	Peter Jackson	$1.13bn
Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Man's Chest (2006)	Gore Verbinski	$1.06bn
Alice in Wonderland (2010)	Tim Burton	$1.02bn