Row escalates over collision in disputed waters The continued detention of a Chinese captain whose trawler collided

The continued detention of a Chinese captain whose trawler collided with Japanese coastguard vessels in disputed waters has sparked an international incident, with high-level contacts between the two nations suspended and tough countermeasures threatened by the Chinese

© GRAPHIC NEWS

Source: Wire agencies