

Health and safety fears over Delhi Games

Following a series of damaging reports on New Delhi's preparations for the Commonwealth Games – and the collapse of a pedestrian walkway – a number of teams have expressed doubts about whether they will attend, while several high profile athletes have already withdrawn

Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium: Following collapse of footbridge and false ceiling, credibility of safety certificates for other venues questioned – construction deadlines missed

Athletes' Village: Allegedly only 18 of 34 residential towers finished, unsafe and unsanitary conditions reported

Threat of large-scale mosquito breeding once monsoon flooding of Yamuna River recedes – Delhi already suffering outbreak of dengue fever
