

Security Council to have powerful members

Next year's UN Security Council will for the first time include a unique membership of global powers and important emerging countries that have been campaigning for reform of the 15-seat decision-making body

HOW UN SECURITY COUNCIL WILL LOOK IN 2011

Permanent members: Britain, China, France, Russia, United States

Have power of veto over UN resolutions

Elected members

No power of veto. Serve two-year term from Jan 2010-Dec 2011

Bosnia

Brazil

Gabon

Lebanon

Nigeria

Elected members

No power of veto. Serve two-year term from Jan 2011-Dec 2012

Colombia

Germany

India

Portugal

South Africa

Seeking permanent council seat

Outgoing elected members: Austria, Japan, Mexico, Turkey, Uganda