

Haiti president urges calm amid cholera riots

Haiti's president Rene Preval has appealed for calm amid fears that riots aimed at UN peacekeepers over a cholera epidemic could spread to the capital, Port-au-Prince. The death toll has reached 1,034, with the first case of the disease reported in the neighbouring Dominican Republic

ANTI-UN RIOTS

At least two people killed Nov 15 in clashes between protesters and UN troops in Cap-Haitien. Protesters believe Nepalese UN peacekeepers are responsible for cholera outbreak

DEATH TOLL (Nov 14)

Artibonite	629
Nord	136
Centre	84
Nord-Ouest	84
Ouest	57
Port-au-Prince	38
Sud	6
Total	1,034

Higuey: First cholera case reported Nov 16 in man recently returned from Haiti