

Surging bond yields hit euro-lifetime record

Investors are dumping Spanish and Portuguese bonds on concern they will follow Ireland and Greece in seeking EU bailouts. Surging yield spreads – compared with benchmark German government bonds – have widened to the biggest gap since the introduction of the euro in 2002

10-year bond yields (annual interest rates %)

