

World's largest greenhouse gas emitters

UN climate talks in Cancun, Mexico, will attempt to cut greenhouse gas emissions and hold global temperature rises to below 2°C. Of the UN's 192 members, just 35 states generate three quarters of all emissions

