Predator from the dawn of the dinosaurs

A dinosaur which lived in the late Triassic period, about 230 million years ago, has been discovered in Argentina. Eodromaeus is an early ancestor of the theropods, which included Velociraptors and Tyrannosaurus rex

Over 90% of all plant and animal species on Earth die out

Theropods are dominant terrestrial carnivores for 165 million years out 65.5 million vears ago Early humans

Permian

Triassic

Jurassic

Cretaceous

Tertiary

300 million years ago 200 100 Pictures: Mike Hettwer, Ricardo Martinez

© GRAPHIC NEWS

Source: Science