

Leaks detail Palestinian concessions

Leaked papers reveal that during U.S.-brokered peace talks in 2008-09, Palestinian negotiators secretly agreed to accept Israel's annexation of all but one of the settlements built illegally in occupied East Jerusalem

Key players in tri-lateral talks

Saeb Erekat
Chief Palestinian negotiator

Ahmed Qurei
Negotiator, also known as Abu Ala

Condoleezza Rice: U.S. Secretary of State

Tzipi Livni: Lead Israeli negotiator, foreign minister

Key concessions

■ 1. Ramot Shlomo: In talks in 2008 Palestinian negotiators agree to allow Israel to annex settlements. In March 2010 Israel announces 1,600 new homes are to be built

■ 2. Sheikh Jarrah: Palestinians offer to swap part of Arab neighbourhood for land elsewhere

■ 3. Old City: Palestinians propose joint committee to take over holy sites of Haram al-Sharif/Temple Mount

■ 4. Gilo: Concession in May 2008 gives go-ahead for 1,400 new homes

■ 5. Har Homa: Sole East Jerusalem settlement not included in Palestinian proposals. Israeli negotiators refuse to entertain idea
