

Hidden wealth of Tunisia's ex-first family

Tunisia's new government has promised to investigate the vast wealth and business interests accumulated by the family of ousted president Zine el-Abidine Ben Ali, paving the way for a redistribution of assets, but creating potential problems for foreign partners

| | | |
|--|--|--|
| Daughters by first marriage | Zine el-Abidine Ben Ali: Estimated $1 billion per year lost between 2000-08 due to corruption, bribery | Leila Trabelsi Second wife, allegedly fled with 1.5 tonnes of gold Brothers |
| Dorsaf - married to Slim Chiboub Interests in pharmaceuticals, property, logistics Cyrine - Marwan Ben Mabrouk Groupe Mabrouk (Orange Tunisie), Le Moteur Mercedes dealers, Arab International Bank of Tunisia, Chams FM |  | Belhassen Trabelsi Bank of Tunisia, Coral Blue Airlines, Karthago Group (airline, hotels), Radio Mosaique, Cactus TV, Carthage TV, Carthage Cement |
| Ghazoua - Slim Zarrouk Mediobanca, Tunis Airport Services | | Mourad Trabelsi Monopolies on tuna exports and fishing in Lake of Tunis |
| Kais Ben Ali (nephew) Alcohol distribution | Nesrine (daughter) — Sakher Materi Ziytouna Bank, Ziytouna FM, Assabah newspaper (Tunisia's biggest circulation daily), Orascom Telecom, Attijari Bank, Ennakl car dealerships (Audi, Porsche, Volkswagen, Seat, Kia) | Imed Trabelsi (nephew) Construction, Bricorama |
| Sources: Wire agencies Picture: Getty Images | | |