

Egypt opposition calls for 1 million on streets

Tens of thousands of Egyptians are continuing to gather in Cairo's Tahrir Square, defying a government-imposed curfew, as opposition groups call for a million-strong march and nationwide strike to bring an end to President Hosni Mubarak's nearly 30-year rule

Source: Wire agencies

© GRAPHIC NEWS