

Sunday, November 14

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1832: America's first horse-drawn streetcar carried public officials on its initial appearance in New York, 12 days before entering public service

1687: English actress Nell Gwyn died; she was a favourite mistress of King Charles II, by whom she had two sons

1847: Civil war broke out in Switzerland

1900: A scientific institute in Vienna announced the existence of three different blood groups

2008: India's Chandrayaan-1 unmanned lunar exploration mission successfully landed its Moon Impact Probe on the south pole of the Moon