

Sunday, December 5

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1963: Jackie Kennedy and her children moved out of the White House two weeks after President John F. Kennedy's assassination

1594: Flemish cartographer Gerhardus Mercator died

1945: Six U.S. Navy aircraft went missing over the Atlantic in an area known as the Bermuda Triangle

1998: The last Khmer Rouge troops surrendered in Cambodia

2009: Thousands of people attended the funeral of Chilean singer Víctor Jara in Santiago, who was reburied 36 years after being tortured to death in the 1973 military coup