

Sunday, February 6

ON THIS DAY

▲ 1911: Ronald Reagan, U.S. actor-turned-politician, was born. He was Governor of California from 1966, and U.S. President from 1980-88

1865: General Robert E. Lee became commander of the Confederate Armies during the American Civil War

1964: Britain and France agreed to build a Channel tunnel

1992: Guatemala's government and rebels began peace negotiations mediated by the Mexican government

2010: The world's leading industrialised nations agreed to write off Haiti's debts following January's devastating earthquake