

New Zealand quake toll likely to rise

Aftershocks are hampering the efforts of rescue workers searching for survivors of the 6.3-magnitude earthquake that struck Christchurch on Tuesday. A national state of emergency has been declared as the confirmed death toll rose to 75, with 300 still missing

