

Last 10 U.S. Masters Championships

2001

Tiger Woods USA
272 (-16)

Tiger's Grand Slam:
Woods wins 2nd Masters to clinch 6th Major – holds all four Majors at once, having won U.S. Open, British Open and USPGA in 2000

2002

Tiger Woods USA
276 (-12)

Back-to-back Titles
Woods successfully defends title – winning by 3 shots – first champion to do so since Nick Faldo in 1990. Only 3rd Masters double in history

2003

Mike Weir CAN
281 (-7) AFTER PLAY-OFF

First Canadian Major
Weir recovers from poor 3rd round to clinch title with first hole play-off victory over Len Mattiace – becomes first left-handed Masters champion

2004

Phil Mickelson USA
279 (-9)

Fantastic First
Mickelson ends long wait for first Major title – paired with Els, he defeats the South African by one shot with an 18ft birdie on the final hole

2005

Tiger Woods USA
276 (-12) AFTER PLAY-OFF

Play-off Thriller
Woods and DiMarco contest exciting final round. Tiger misses par putt for outright win but clinches play-off on first hole to win 4th Masters

2006

Phil Mickelson USA
281 (-7)

Second Green Jacket
Mickelson wins 2nd Masters, leading from third round, hits final round 69 to win by two shots – a 2nd consecutive Major after 2005 USPGA

2007

Zach Johnson USA
289 (+1)

Zach's Fairytale Finish
Johnson hits 3 birdies on final six holes, holding off Woods and Goosen, to seal first Major – first player ranked outside top 50 to win Masters

2008

Trevor Immelman RSA
280 (-8)

Maiden Major
Immelman holds nerve and leads from start to finish – becomes first wire-to-wire Masters champion since Raymond Floyd in 1976

2009

Angel Cabrera ARG
276 (-12) AFTER PLAY-OFF

Cabrera Celebrates
Cabrera defeats Perry and Campbell in a 3-way sudden death play-off to clinch 2nd Major title, and becomes first Argentine to win the Masters

2010

Phil Mickelson USA
272 (-16)

Phil's Hat-trick
Mickelson hits a bogey-free round of 67 to claim third Masters victory, eventually winning by 3 shots over England's Lee Westwood

2011 75th U.S. Masters Tournament
Augusta National Golf Club
April 7-10

Clash of the 'Masters'
Phil Mickelson and Tiger Woods go into the 2011 Masters as favourites to claim the famous Green Jacket once more

