

Muammar Gaddafi's inner circle defections

1. Saif al-Islam Gaddafi:
Sent personal aide Mohammed Ismail to London to discuss exit strategy

3. Saadi Gaddafi:
Rumours that former soccer player wants to negotiate with West

2. Mutassim Gaddafi: National Security Adviser believed to support Ismail's visit to London

4. Mustafa Abdul Jalil: Former justice minister defected Feb 21

5. Ali Suleiman Aujali: Former ambassador to U.S. defected Feb 22

6. Major Gen. Abdul-Fattah Yunis: Former interior minister and special forces chief defected to rebels Feb 22

7. Moussa Koussa: Foreign minister – who persuaded Gaddafi to abandon weapons of mass destruction in 2003 – defected to Britain Mar 31

8. Abdul Ati al-Obeidi: Former prime minister – who also worked on WMD deal with London – defected Mar 30

9. Ali Abdussalam el-Treki: Former foreign minister fled to Tunisia late Mar

10. Abuzeid Dorda: Intelligence chief fled to Tunisia Mar 30

11. Mohamed Abdul Qasim al-Zwai: Speaker of General People's Congress fled to Tunisia Mar 30

12. Nuri al-Mismari: Chief of state protocol resigned Feb 21

13. Ibrahim Dabbashi: Deputy ambassador to UN resigned Feb 21

14. Youssef Sawani: Senior aide to Gaddafi's son Saif al-Islam resigned Feb 20

Others – Abdel Fattah Younes al-Abidi: Interior minister quit Feb 22

Abdul-Rahman al-Abbar: Prosecutor-general resigned Feb 25

Libyan ambassadors to Australia, Bangladesh, China, France, India, Indonesia and Jordan have resigned. Entire Libyan delegation in Switzerland now represents rebel-led National Transitional Council

Pictures: Associated Press, Getty Images

© GRAPHIC NEWS