

Portugal joins Greece in EU's rehab clinic

Portugal has become the third eurozone country in less than a year to seek an EU-IMF bailout, after Greece and Ireland. The interest rate – set by the European Financial Stability Facility – will be lower than market rates

GREECE
Bailout: €110 billion
(May 2010)

Economy: To shrink by 4.5% (2011)

Jobless rate:
14.8% (Dec)

Debt:
As % of GDP

2009
127%

2012
156%

IRELAND
Bailout: €85 billion
(Nov 2010)

Economy: To shrink by 1.0% (2011)

Jobless rate: 15%

Debt:
As % of GDP

2009
114%

2012
120%

PORTUGAL
Bailout: €70-80 billion

Economy:
To shrink by 1.5% (2011)

Jobless rate: 11.1%

2009
76%

2012
92%

SPAIN
Rules out bailout

Economy:
To grow by 1.3% (2011)

Jobless rate: 20.3%

2009
44%

2012
84%